Parker Promoted to Village Deputy Manager

RUIDOSO, NM - November 18, 2011 -- Three months ago, Sean Parker “came home” to serve as manager of the Sierra Blanca Regional Airport. Just three short months later, he is taking on new duties as Deputy Village Manager. Parker, a Ruidoso native, worked at McCarran International Airport in Las Vegas for the last 15 years before returning to New Mexico.

A graduate of Ruidoso High School, Parker graduated from NMSU in 1992 with a degree in Business Administration/Economics with an emphasis on Aviation and Transportation Management. He was the very first graduate from this program.

According to Debi Lee, Village Manager: “In a very short time, Sean has demonstrated his ability to be a strong manager and team player. He is a going to be a great addition here at Village Hall.”

As the Deputy Manager, Parker will be responsible for working with all village departments and supporting the Village Manager.

“I was so excited to come back to Ruidoso,” said Parker. “I never expected that this opportunity would present itself. I am ready to get started.”

Parker has already moved to his office in Village Hall. Dave Pearce, a seasoned airport veteran has been named as Parker’s replacement at Sierra Blanca Regional Airport.
